

LOCAL NEWS.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 29, 1895.

Sun rises to-morrow at 7:02; and sets 4:59. High water 10:54 a. m. and 11:07 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section snow flurries to-day; fair to-night and Wednesday; warmer Wednesday; westerly, shifting to southwestly winds.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS.—Mention was made yesterday of a Mr. and Mrs. Bradley who had taken rooms and board in this city and of the fact that the husband had skipped the city, leaving his wife to settle the bills and get home as best she could. To-day a postal card was received at police headquarters directing the officers to shadow the woman, as it was believed she and her male companions were all crooks. Capt. Webster obtained an interview with the woman yesterday, when she stated that she came from a place called Granite, in Baltimore county, Md., that her father (a Mr. Nelson) was a prominent man in that neighborhood, and that she ran away and married Bradley after a three-months' courtship. A man named C. H. Kraft and another named Brown came here with her and her husband. A heavy satchel, which the party carried with them and which disappeared with Bradley may, it is surmised, have contained burglars' tools. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley had rooms at Mr. F. L. Vanauken's, but took their meals at Mrs. Hudson's boarding house. The woman is swarthy in appearance and is about 27 years old. She says her grandfather was the American Minister to Italy fifty years ago and that her husband is named Scheeler and not Bradley as she stated. He left her Sunday evening and she followed him to Washington where she lost all traces of him. Mr. Vanauken thinks she is the victim of misplaced confidence.

FOR THE POOR.—The ladies of the city who are interested in the wants of the poor met at Mr. Simpson's hall, No. 405 King street, this morning and perfected an organization. The following committees were appointed:

General Committee—Mrs. Jones, Chairman; Mrs. W. F. Creighton, Treasurer; Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Windsor, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Appich, Mrs. Gatewood, Mrs. James Caton, Mrs. O'Sullivan, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Paff, Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. Strauss, Mrs. Dyson, Mrs. W. B. Daingerfield, Mrs. H. Snowden, Mrs. J. C. Smoot, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. E. J. Hall.

Investigating Committee—Mrs. M. L. Price, Miss S. Stuart, Mrs. D. Windsor, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. M. B. O'Sullivan.

Distributing Committee—Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. Dyson, Mrs. Appich, Miss King, Mrs. Creighton, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Green, Mrs. E. J. O'Brien, Mrs. Strauss, Mrs. J. C. Smoot, Mrs. O'Sullivan, and Mrs. Jones, Chairman.

Grocery Committee—Mrs. Gatewood, Mrs. Mark Price, and Mrs. Caton.

Clothing Committee—Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. M. B. O'Sullivan, and Mrs. J. S. Green.

The hall will be kept open every day this week and until further notice from 9 a. m. till 4 p. m., and donations of groceries, clothing, &c., will be gladly received. These ladies have undertaken a noble work and should receive the encouragement of the community.

THE B. & O. DEPOT.—Major Hunter Johnson and Mr. C. E. Ways, general freight agent of the B. & O. Railroad, were in the city to-day, and met the owners of the property adjoining that on the river front recently purchased by the railroad company on which to build a depot. The company, as heretofore stated, wish to close the Strand south of the Pioneer Mill to Wilkes street, and offered the property owners there another and better outlet to Union street. They propose also to pave this outlet and keep it open and paved so long as the street is closed. The property owners expressed a willingness to comply with the request of the railroad company and Council will be asked to ratify the agreement. Maj. Johnson said this morning that the work of building the depot would be commenced as soon Council gave assent to the closing of the street. The business of the B. & O. road has suffered a great loss during the past few years in consequence of its not having a direct representative in Alexandria. The location selected is exceedingly convenient to the merchants and fronts on the river where 20 to 30 feet of water can readily be obtained.

SURPRISE PARTY.—A pleasant surprise party was given to Miss Stella Travers at her parents' residence, 813 Wilkes street, last night by the members of the Greenleaf Club. Among those present were:

Misses Laura Wilkins, Mabel Cook, Susie Warder, May Evans, Daisy Lewis, Newland, Dora Seaman, Orena Simpson, Maggie Beach, Julia Hamilton, Mabel Nelson, Annie Brown, Blanche Allen, Lella Thompson, Julia Kaufman and Maud Griffin; Mrs. Magruder, Mrs. Travers, Mrs. Hoy, Mrs. Pevelev, Mrs. Hiseley; Messrs. Lewis, Magruder, Robert Evans, Frank Pevelev, Bernard Cline, Jack Allen, Harry Allen, Will Dobbie, Ben Waters, Will Kersey, F. Kersey, C. Kersey, Ernest Craven, Oscar Cook, Dan Warder, Jerry Gensamer, James Nowland, C. Briscoe, J. Tixer, R. Chesline, L. Lee, J. Lucas, B. Milled, H. Jett, E. Matter, F. Wright, G. Phillips, D. Robey, F. Smith, F. Harper, W. Harper, C. Adams, A. Gray, E. Wildt, A. Schoeni, S. Johnson and E. Powell.

Mr. Bernard Cline won the cake for appearing in the most original costume.

OPERA HOUSE.—An exchange says of Guy's Minstrels, who will appear here to-night: "New and pretty songs, intricate stunts, clever gymnastic and calisthenic specialties, charming stage groupings, and the most amusing play-actors freely interspersed with splendid orchestral selections called for and received unstinted applause. The Guy Brothers' singing, and Eddie McDonald the Adonis statue, were perhaps the finest features of the evening; the other principal entertainers being the Big Twelve in the Baseball March and Clog; Edwin Guy in his barrel jumping act; Fred Smith the baton twirler; W. H. Guy, soprano soloist; and the Funny Noiseless Coons, Arthur Guy and Eddie McDonald.

"Old Farmer Hopkins," said to be one of the brightest rural dramas ever written, will be produced at the Opera House Saturday night.

POLICE COURT.—Justice Thompson presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Samuel R. Beach, arrested by Officer Washington charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses, was held for further examination.

A man charged with discharging a pistol within the city limits was fined $1.

A man charged with keeping a vicious dog was dismissed upon giving satisfactory evidence that he had disposed of the animal.

Night Report.—Last night was cold with snow until about 12 o'clock. One prisoner and twenty-nine lodgers were at the station house.

WINTER WEATHER.—The snow which began to fall yesterday afternoon did not cease until midnight, by which time it was 4 inches deep. The snow fell in binding sheets and at the close of the day had carpeted the earth and everything exposed in white. It afforded fun to the school boy and sport to those fond of sleighing, but anxiety to others whose woodpiles are depleted and coalbins empty. During the night the wind at times blew fiercely, and it was thought a blizzard would follow the snow, but it was found this morning that the temperature had not fallen materially and that the weather was not as cold as had been anticipated. This afternoon the heavens cleared and fair weather followed.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. L. W. Ketcham, of Capitol Hill, Washington, who recently had a tumor removed at Dr. Taber Johnson's private hospital in that city, has so far recovered as to be able to go to Manassas, Va., where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. J. P. Baldwin.

Mr. S. Leterman and his wife, of Charlottesville, are visiting Mayor Strauss. Miss Lenora Brooks is visiting Miss Nellie Pettit, on St. Asaph street.

Mr. J. R. Caton has gone to Ohio on legal business.

Mr. S. Lee Ledman, formerly with Messrs. J. A. Marshall & Bro., has accepted a position as bookkeeper with Messrs. Wm. H. May & Son.

A. A. R.—Gen. T. T. Whitcomb, Past Dept. Commander, G. A. R., is in the city, the guest of Capt. J. V. Davis. Last night he visited Post No. 86, installed the officers elected in December and also delivered a very able and interesting address to the members. Capt. J. V. Davis was reappointed adjutant—his fourth term. Messrs W. P. Graves and J. V. Davis were elected representatives to the Dept. Encampment, which meets in Richmond in April. Commander in Chief Lawler and his entire staff will attend the meeting.

FIGHT.—A man living in the southern section of the city became incensed at his horse on Sunday morning and beat and cruelly treated the animal to such an extent that a neighbor remonstrated and a fight between the two men was precipitated, which was continued with ferocity on both sides until the wife of one of the combatants appeared on the scene and parted them. The police have the matter in hand and are making proper investigation.

THE DIRECT TAX.—City Treasurer Harlow has submitted to the Governor his report of the distribution of the direct tax fund for the city and county of Alexandria for the six months ending January 1st, 1895. The report states that during the above period $706.15 has been disbursed, leaving a balance on hand of $3,707.54. The total amount received for distribution was $12,024.81.

CORPORATION COURT.—To-day was fixed as the date for beginning the trial of the several criminal cases now pending in the Corporation Court, but as Commonwealth Attorney Marbury was confined to his home with a severe cold the cases were continued till Thursday, to which day the jury was adjourned.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Little drops of water,
Freezing as they fall;
Make the walking shorter,
And the swearing tall.

James Furrow died last night at his home on Taylor's Hill.

The Y. M. S. L. will hold a regular business meeting to-night.

A reissue of pension has been granted to Franklin Jennings, of Dumfries.

A regular meeting of Sarepta Lodge of Odd Fellows will be held to-night.

An old colored man named Marlow died last night at her home on Gibson street.

NOTICE TO INCOME TAX VICTIMS.—Commissioner Miller, of the Internal Revenue Bureau, is making active preparations for carrying into effect the new income tax law, and to that end he has prepared a notice, copies of which will be posted in all the cities and towns throughout the country, notifying those who come within the provisions of the law of their duty in the premises. The law makes an appropriation of $245,000 for carrying the act into effect, and provides for the appointment of 303 additional deputy revenue collectors and ten additional revenue agents. The deputies will be appointed by the district collectors and the agents by Commissioner Miller, who will at once begin the allotment of the deputy collectors and the appointment of the appropriation. The deputies will not all be allotted at once, but only as the necessities of the work require.

In his opinion on the subject, the Attorney General holds that the law applies to all incomes above $4,000, regardless of their character, and he states that paymaster must deduct from amount disbursed to officers on their individual account the tax of two per cent on all cases where it aggregates the sum mentioned. The attorney general says his views are the same as those expressed by a predecessor in passing on the income tax law of 1864.

It is expected that the War and Navy Departments will issue regulations predicated on this opinion.
